

The Cure Parkinson's Trust in partnership with The Parkinson's Academy

Research Engagement: Exploring the research landscape and identifying research delivery opportunities within the NHS

6th December 2018, Sheffield

Time	Item
9.30 onwards	Registration, tea and coffee
10.00 am	Welcome and opening remarks by meeting chairs Dr Camille Carroll, Dr Peter Fletcher and Professor Oliver Bandmann
10.10 am	Is disease modification in Parkinson's a reality? Dr Richard Wyse, The Cure Parkinson's Trust
10.40 am	The Study Life Cycle: From research idea to successful study closure...and everything in between: case study UDCA Professor Oliver Bandmann
11.10 am	Tea, coffee
11.30 am	What is the Clinical Research Network how can it assist you? Dr Camille Carroll
12.00 noon	The challenges of becoming a new PI?: case study Dr Emily Henderson (tbc)
12.30 pm	Pragmatic research – making studies deliverable: Pauline Fitzell, research team leader, Torbay
1.00 pm Buffet lunch:
2.00 pm	PwP perspectives: Why research? Presenting the information? How best to engage PwP with research, including PPI? Kevin Mcfarthing
2.30 pm	Challenges and opportunities of recruiting patients the right patients to the right research opportunity Jemma Inches	GCP training (tbc if demand)
3.00 pm	Finding studies: what studies are recruiting and how to find out more? Parkinson's UK	GCP training (tbc if demand)
3.30 pm	What the future holds: new platforms for trials, stratification of patients (Speaker tbc)
3.50 pm	Closing remarks
4.15 pm	Departure	